

CIGARETTE 'SILKS' CANADIAN REGIMENTAL UNIFORMS EAC-2011-11-DLR

Size: Approximately 8.5 x 5.5 cm each.

Description: A series of cigarette 'silks' of Canadian Regimental Uniform listed below:

- Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders Winnipeg
- Sergeant 25th Brant Dragoons
- 100th Regiment Winnipeg Grenadiers
- Officer Queen's Own Rifles Toronto
- Officer 38th Regiment Dufferin Rifles of Canada
- Duke of York's Royal Canadian Hussars Montreal
- Officer 77th Wentworth Regiment Dundas
- 4th London Field Battery

- 3rd Montreal Battery Field Artillery
- Sergeant major Bath St Hyacinthe Regt
- Quartermaster Sergeant 9th Regt Voltigeurs de Quebec
- Same as above
- 95th Regiment Saskatchewan Rifles Regina
- Same as above
- Officer 24th Kent Regiment Chatham
- Piper 48th Highlanders Toronto
- Royal Canadian Horse Artillery Kingston
- North West Mounted Police
- North West Mounted Police (second)
- North West Mounted Police (third)
- Strathcona Horse Winnipeg
- 1st Hussars London, Ontario
- Royal Canadian Artillery Garrison Quebec
- 1st Hussars London, Ontario
- Pictou Regt Highlanders Pictou, NS
- Pictou Regt Highlanders Pictou, N.S.
- Royal Canadian Artillery Garrison, Quebec

MATERIALS: Printed satin.

HISTORY: Donated by Doreen Larson Riedel of Ottawa. Cigarette “silks” were made out of satin and came in packages of cigarettes as a promotion to encourage smokers to collect sets. Eg. Flowers, flags of different countries, animals, leaders, etc. They were produced in England between approximately 1900 and 1925.

CONDITION: Good, but several are creased.

TREATMENT: Store in acid free conditions.