What did the Youth Embroiderer suffer from after stitching for hours and hours?

She had " _____ " and " _____ ".

FROM THE EDITOR

Well, I'm still behind, but I am going to get caught up. I have to as I will be taking on a new position in September 2018. I will be taking over as Education Director and a new person will be the Youth Appointee. I'm sure she will have a lot of new ideas and will make the Newsletters even better! When I know who the new Youth Appointee is, I'll announce it in the newsletter. However, I still have two more issues to do, so I'll be around for a little bit longer.

I have also been extremely busy with Seminar 2018 registrations (I'm the Registrar and a CoChair), but the registrations are closed now and it's just making the lists needed and printing name tags, tickets, etc. I am really looking forward to Seminar in July in PEI! We should have a fabulous time!

Are you going to enter one of your projects in the Members' Exhibit at Seminar? It would be lovely to see some Youth entries this year. If not, send me a picture of your project. I'll put it in the newsletter and I'll also send you a goodie!

In this issue, the patterns included are:

- October—Witch Hat by Linda Stolz for Rainbow Gallery

- December—Stocking Stuffer by Linda Stolz for Rainbow Gallery

That's it for now, so enjoy and Happy Stitching!

PICTURES FROM TANGLED THREADS

These two pictures depict the project that Charlotte finished in her Tangled Threads group. She says:

I finished the project. Yay!

Charlotte

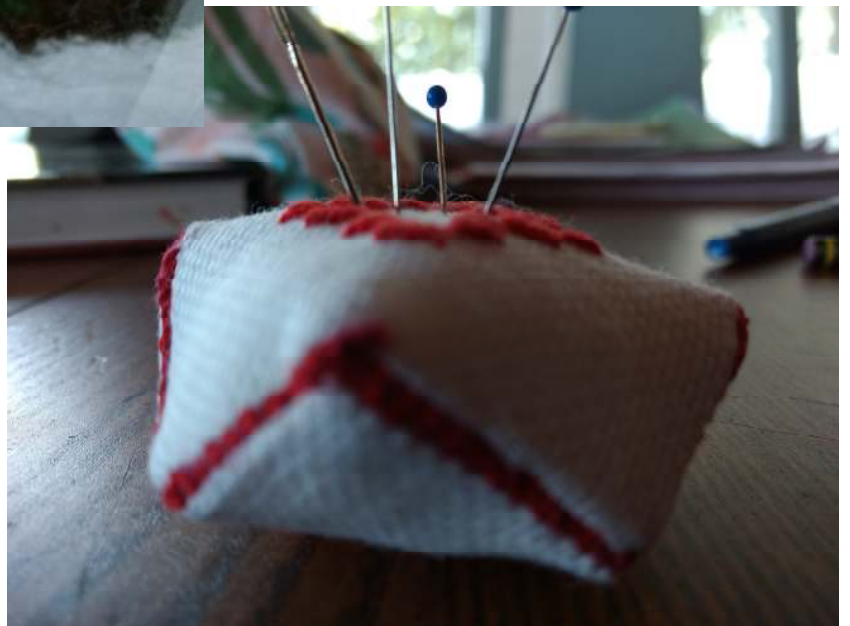

Charlotte's Youth Leader had this to say about her work:

Just had to send you this great work done by Charlotte. I am so amazed by the work these young girls do.

Yours in stitching,

Sharon

I have to agree with Sharon. Every time I see a picture of the work Youth members are doing, I am totally blown away by the quality. Our Youth members are incredible stitchers!

TRY A NEW STITCH...CORAL KNOTS

Bring the thread up on the right side of your design line (A). Lay it along the line of the design and hold it down with your left thumb. Take a small stitch under and perpendicular to the design line (B and C) and pull through. Make sure to bring the needle over the lower thread as in the diagram.

Continue making the Coral Knots along the design line ensuring that they are an equal distance apart. They should look like little beads on your thread.

KARATE ZIPPER PULL

Materials Used:

7 count Plastic Canvas Mesh

Needloft Yarn:

#37 Silver - 7 1/2 yds.

#41 White - 1/2 yd.

#57 Yellow - 1 yd.

#27 Holly - 1/2 yd.

#48 Dark Royal - 1/2 yd.

#46 Purple - 1 yd.

#01 Red - 1 yd.

#15 Brown - 1 yd.

#00 Black - 5 yds.

To Finish Project:

#310 DMC Thread - 5 yds.

Keychain Hook & Ring

Stitches Used:

Continental Stitch

Reverse Continental Stitch

Straight Stitch

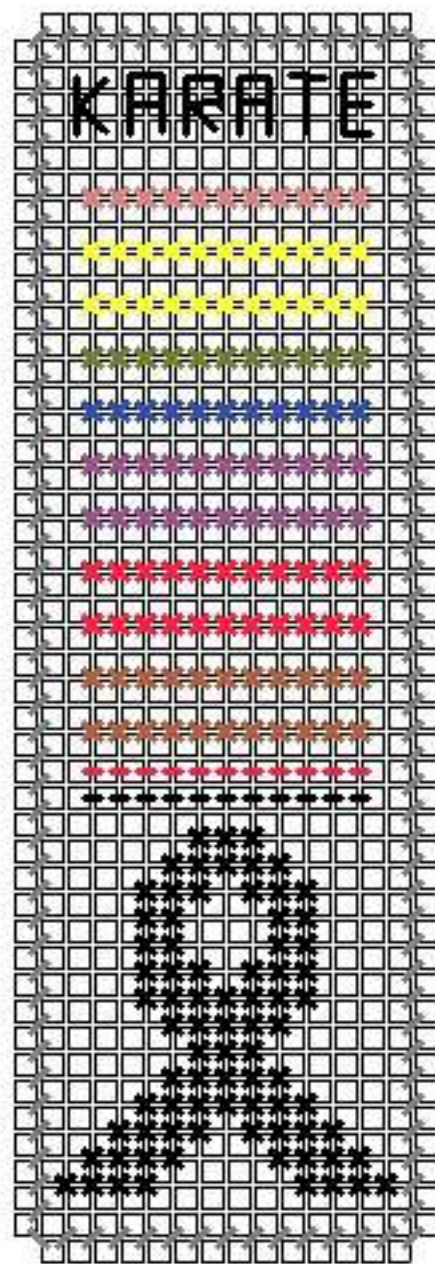

Embroidery Backstitch

Whipstitch

Instructions:

Cut 2 pieces of 17X48 threads (16X47 holes) according to the pattern. Using the pattern only stitch one of the pieces you cut. Uncoded sections are done in Silver Continental Stitch. First belt rank is done in White (we used pink on the pattern so you could see it better). Using black DMC thread stitch the word Karate as shown on the pattern. Using black DMC thread stitch a line onto the center of the second yellow, purple, red and brown belts as seen in the finished project. Using black DMC thread backstitch each belt rank and completely around the black belt as seen in the finished project. Stitch the second piece you cut out entirely in black. You can stitch someone's name on it afterwards with any color DMC thread to give it a personal touch. Whipstitch both front and back pieces together. Fish the Keychain hook through the top about center and then add the ring if you wish.

This project is definitely versatile.....as you can change the belt rank depending on the Karate discipline you take. We used the belt ranking that my son went through to get his Black Belt in Muay Thai (white, yellow, gold, green, blue, purple, purple one, red, red one, brown, brown one, black belt recommended and black belt). If your discipline calls for fewer belt ranks, just shorten your project (but it would be best to do this at the top) by a few rows. Also if you want to, you do not have to stitch a second piece and use this as a bookmark (just add a piece of black ribbon or tassel at the top).
